BUCHANAN LETTER

DECLINING A PASS. The Pennsylvania Railroad has just made public a letter from James Buchanan when he was President declining an offer of a free pass on the Northern Central Railroad, which the "Pennsy" acquired. The letter reads: "Pennsy" acquired. The letter reads:

"Washington, 24 March, 1859.

"Dear Sir: I return the free ticket which Mr. Gittings has directed to be forwarded to me for the Northern Ceneral Railroad with as many thanks for his kindness as though I had accepted
it. It has been the practice of my life toot to travel free on any railroad, being opposed to the whole system of penning such privileges to individuals and connected with towns roads.

"Yours very respectfully,

"JAMES BUCHANAN.

OFF FOR THE COUNTRY

Be sure that you order a good supply of Moxie. See to it that it is properly addressed and shipped so that you will find it waiting for you on your arrival at your summer home. You will need it just as soon as you arrive, for it is refreshing, thirst-quenching and nerve-sustaining. A bottle of Moxie will make the work of moving in and settling June Sale of your summer home an easy matter.

By drinking Moxie you will avoid any danger arising from impurities in doubtful drinking water. Days of feeling better, meals that will taste better and do you more good, and nights of sweet, refreshing sleep will attend you, if you drink Moxie frequently.

Those who are unable to leave the city will be compensated by drinking plenty of Moxie at home. It will help them to bear the trying heat of summer and to better attend to their daily work.
